

SOCIAL MOVEMENTS AFTER GENOCIDE:

THE ACT OF MEMORY- THE ARGENTINEAN CASE

DR. NORA STREJILEVICH

WHITAKER CAMPUS COMMONS
7:00 PM
MONDAY, APRIL 14, 2008

Join us as we welcome back Nora Strejilevich, Researcher on Human Rights and Literature at Five College Women's Research Center, Mt. Holyoke College. Nora is an Argentinean writer whose literary production is a means to "work through" the legacy of State Terrorism on the basis of her own experience as a survivor and exile.

The Hood College Colloquium is under the direction of the Sophia M. Libman NEH Professor at Hood, Dr. Rick Santos, and sponsored by the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures

Latin American Studies/ Department of Foreign Languages
401 Rosemont Avenue

